Same Summit – New Stage

In 2027, Hardrock Summit moves to the National Western Center in central Denver. The modern campus offers expanded indoor and outdoor exhibition space, improved logistics, 1,500+ parking spaces and plenty of room for future growth – all in one purpose-built event destination.

For exhibitors, the new venue means more flexibility, better accessibility and greater opportunities to connect with buyers and collectors. Together with Hart's Denver Gem Show on the same campus, it creates a concentrated destination with even stronger visitor potential.
