

HARDROCK SUMMIT

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Hardrock Summit Joins American Gem Society

DENVER, CO (August 16, 2023) - The Hardrock Summit, the defining fall show in the United States for fine gemstones and jewelry, is proud to announce its acceptance as a member of the prestigious American Gem Society (AGS). This step represents the company's continuing commitment to upholding the highest standards of excellence and ethics within the jewelry and gemological community.

As a member, Hardrock Summit has committed to maintaining the highest standards of ethical conduct and professional behavior, meeting its educational requirements, and keeping up with trends in the jewelry industry.

"Membership in the American Gem Society is a coveted distinction, and we are delighted to be new members," said Wolter Mehring, co-founder of the Hardrock Summit. "Since our launch in 2021, we have strived to provide the industry with an event to source the best fine gem, jewelry, and mineral companies in the world as well as education and opportunities to network. We look forward to actively participating in AGS initiatives and contributing to the advancement of the industry."

AGS membership provides the Hardrock Summit with access to a wealth of resources, networking opportunities, and professional development programs that will further elevate the company's expertise and strengthen its position as a leader in the industry.
